

Brown and Mrs. Truman Hienton gave a typescript copy of "The Oaths of Fidelity of Prince George's County, Maryland, 1778." They had compiled this work from our own records, adding a valuable proper name index. The late Professor St. George L. Sioussat donated the ten-volume set of Messages and Papers of the Presidents by James Richardson, while we received from Jean Stephenson a copy of Genealogical Research Methods and Sources, which was compiled by the American Society of Genealogists.

We have continued to receive copies of local history and professional journals through gift, exchange and subscription. These include The Journal of Southern History, The William and Mary Quarterly, The American Archivist and the Journal of the Society of Architectural Historians. The historical societies of Carroll, Garrett, Montgomery and St. Mary's Counties have continued to send us their publications.

As during past years, we have confined our purchases to essential items. These included The United States Government Organizational Manual, a biography of Augustine Herman, The Presbyterians of Baltimore and Their Records, by Boulden, and the two-volume History of the National Capital, by Bryan.

We are especially glad to note additions of Annotated County Codes to our collection.
